DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to applicant's communication of January 8, 2010. Claims 1-48 are pending and have been examined. The rejections are stated below.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-48 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claim 34 is directed to a computer-readable medium which encompasses a non-statutory embodiment (e.g. transitory signal) and statutory embodiment (e.g. a magnetic disc), the claims are rejected as being directed to subject matter outside the permissible statutory categories ("process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter") contemplated by 35 USC § 101.

It is suggested that the limitation "non-transitory tangible" (as for example "non-transitory computer-readable medium") is added to the claims to narrow the claim to only statutory embodiment.

5. Claim 35 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to nonstatutory subject matter. Claim 35 does not fit into any of the statutory classes of ("process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter") contemplated by 35 USC § 101.
